Maryville's History Epitomized

THE ANTE-COLLEGE ACADEMY, 1802-1819. In 1802 Dr. Isaac Anderson founded "Union Academy" in Grassy Valley, Knox County. In 1812 he removed his academy to Maryville.

"THE SEMINARY," 1819-1842. "The Southern and Western Theological Seminary" was founded by Dr. Anderson in 1819. A literary and college department was established in 1821. By 1842 there were "nearly one hundred men sent out into the gospel ministry" and "several hundred alumni."

THE ANTE-BELLUM "COLLEGE," 1842-1865. Then chartered at "Maryville College." President Anderson died in 1857. Enrollment from 60 to 150 students annually. Endowment of $16,000. Three buildings. Faculty of four.

THE POSTBELLUM COLLEGE, 1865-PRESENT. Only $6,000 saved from cataclysm of war. Reopening, 1866. New campus and Anderson, Baldwin and Memorial halls, 1868-1871. Prof. Lamar's endowment of $100,000, 1884; Fayerweather legacy, $216,000, 1891; Voorhees fund, $100,000, 1905; Forward fund of $227,000, 1908; Centennial fund, $541,000, 1919. Total property valuation—buildings, endowment and equipment in 1920—$1,351,516. Number of students in 1866, 13; 1870, 60; 1880, 200; 1890, 294; 1900, 402; 1910, 609; 1920, 1,003. Number of instructors in 1866, 1; 1870, 3; 1880, 6; 1890, 10; 1900, 17; 1910, 36; 1920, 84. College enrollment in 1921, 468; Preparatory School, 465.

A record full of divine providence, human faithfulness and college usefulness. Noble achievements in the past, boundless opportunity in the present, and high purpose and hope for the future.

Senior Class

LAMAR S. WILSON Maryville, Tennessee

B.A.

Mathematics

Alpha Sigma

Sport Editor of Highland Echo '19-'20; Business Manager of Chilhowean '20;
Editor of Highland Echo '20-'21; President of Class of '21.

When it comes to managing an annual or editing the Highland Echo, Lamar is a past-master. Nor are these his only accomplishments. He as our treasurer when we were Juniors, and now that we are Seniors, he is our president. We'll miss seeing Lamar and his motorcycle when we leave Maryville.

Senior Class

BLANCHE RUSH BAILEY Baileyton, Tennessee

B.A. Classical Bainonian

Class Basketball '17-'18; Varsity Basketball '18-'19-'20-'21; Manager Basketball Team '21, Captain '20; Member Athletic Board of Control '19-'20-'21; Graduate in Home Economics '20; Vice-President of Senior Class; Vice-President Bainonian '21.

Whether it be on the basketball floor or in the kitchen, Blanche is right there with the goods. Her good humor and good nature win a smile from everyone. She will long be remembered at Maryville and forever by her host of friends.

DELEMO LEETASSA BEARD Staunton, Virginia

B.A. Athenian

Class Athletics '17-'18; Secretary of Y. M. C. A. '18-'19; S. A. T. C. '18; Editor of Athenian '18-'19; Vice-President of Athenian, spring term '20; Critic Athenian, first semester '20-'21; Vice-President Virginia Club '20-'21; Athenian Midwinter '20-'21; Highland Echo '20-'21; College debate against Tusculum '20; Member Ministerial Association.

You can never tell just how things are going to work in pairs, for instance, boxing and debating, in which cases the pair may be either point of attack or instrument of attack. At any rate, in spite of the combination, Delemo is one of our debaters and we're backing him every time his jaw is in place, as far as the judges are concerned.

LOLA FRANCES BEELER Powder Springs, Tennessee

B.A. English Literature Bainonian

Manager Y. W. C. A. Store '20-'21; Bainonian Midwinter Committee '20-'21; Y. W. C. A. Delegate to Blue Ridge '20; Secretary and Treasurer of Blue Ridge Club '20-'21; Graduate in Expression '21.

Come what may, we could always depend on Beeler. What would we have done without her on eals committees and the like? She is a steadfast girl and one that will not be forgotten by the Seniors of '21.

Senior Class

HAZEL FRANCES CLEVELAND Salem, New York

B.A. Bible Training Bainonian

Treasurer Y. W. C. A. '20-'21; Postal Clerk '18-'19-'20-'21; Member Student Volunteer Band; Program Secretary S. V. B. '20.

Loyal, dependable, lovable—that's Hazel. Her steady habits and working ability have won for her our highest esteem—with her store of energy, her capabilities and her cheerful personality there is no limit to Hazel's future.

LUCILE CAROLINE CARTER Philadelphia, Tennessee

B.A. Mathematics Theta Epsilon

Theta Epsilon Midwinter Committee '21; Cabinet Member of Y. W. C. A. '21; Secretary of Suffrage Club '20.

Though of a reserved nature, the ones who have probed beneath her rather quiet exterior have found pure gold. The best wishes of us all go with her next year as she goes to teach "young hopefuls" the intricacies of math.

JESSIE HASTIE BROWN Cleveland, Tennessee

B.A. Bainonian

Graduate in Home Economics '19.

Jessie comes from Cleveland. She distinguished herself by finishing in Home Ec when she was a sophomore. She knows all about cooking and sewing and etiquette and makes a dandy member on eats committees. She's the kind that has extra credits, too. She knows about Political Science and Greek as well as Home Ec. Furthermore, she's a good, faithful friend, and we all like her.

Senior Class

JARVIS MADISON COTTON Birmingham, Alabama

B.A. Science Alpha Sigma

Varsity Football '18-'19-'20; Varsity Basketball '19-'20-'21; Varsity Baseball '20-'21; Editor of Class '19; Vice-President of Class '20; Vice-President of Athletic Association '20; President of Athletic Association '21; Member of Glee Club '19-'20-'21; Manager of Baseball '20; Captain of Basketball '21; Advertising Manager of Chilhowean '20; Assistant in Physics '20; Member of "M" Club.

Jarvis has played basketball, baseball, football, and has starred in each. He has made a success not only in athletics, but in winning for himself a host of friends. He goes in for everything and holds on with that tenacity which is sure to put him over the top. Jarvis has an unlimited supply of wit, humor and sympathy—he is the kind you like to have around when the world seems to be agin' you. To make a few words serve him: Jarvis has all the admirable qualities of a leader and we predict with certainty a brilliant future.

ELSIE ELMORE DAWSON Knoxville, Tennessee

B.A. Theta Epsilon

Vice-President Class '19; Captain Class Basketball '18; Member Varsity Basketball '20-'21; Secretary Athletic Board of Control '20; Student Representative A. B. C. '21; Girls' Physical Director '20; Member Chilhowean Staff '20; Member Highland Echo Staff '21; Graduate Home Economics '21.

Never have we met a more lovable girl than Elsie, for just listen: she is a star forward, bubbles over with pep, is good to look upon, and has that magnetic personality which singles her out as a leader. She is interested first and last in cooking and sewing, particularly the latter, for she is eager to discover the infinite uses for and possibilities in "Cotton."

LESLIE EUGENE DAVIDSON Harriman, Tennessee

B.A. Social Science Alpha Sigma

Baseball Teams '17-'19-'20-'21; Basketball '17; Football '17-'19-'20; In Navy from December '17 to April '19; six months' duty in European waters, submarine zone.

"Dave," the all-round sportsman and athlete—you see him on football gridiron and baseball diamond always full of "pep," energy and "go." He is full of life and pranks, while his smile is always cheery and most contagious. Who here but is glad to be counted as "Dave's" friend?

Senior Class

CARL E. DOMIANO Binghamton, New York
B.A. Psychology Athenian

"Dommy" has been with us the full four years and has made a record while on the old hill. He is the kind of man who will make a success in whatever he undertakes because he works for love of it. His genial disposition has won him many friends.

LOUISE DUNCUM Knoxville, Tennessee
B.A. Theta Epsilon
Chilhowean Staff '20; Graduate in Home Economics '20; Assistant in Home Economics, fall term '20; Vice-President '20; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '20; Editor of Theta '21; President of Theta '21.

When we think of Louise we always think of all that is lovable and gentle in woman. To know her is to love her. She is willing to do her part, and we could never do without her on our "eats" committee. To measure her success in loyal friends would be to give her a high place on college hill.

MOSS FARMER McKee, Kentucky
B.A. Mathematics Athenian
Vice-President Athenian, fall '19; Program Secretary, spring '19; Member of Class Baseball Team and Basketball Team '17; Chemistry Assistant '19-'20-'21; Treasurer Lyceum Committee '20-'21; Member of Chemistry Club.

Moss, a compound of goodly characteristics, is a shark at handling chemical compounds, and the weaker sex; in the latter he is particularly "strong." To look at Moss is to know that he is an optimist, for his face is one big smile. They say he has found a favorite in the chemistry instructor—well, he is the kind to be favored, all right.

Senior Class

ADDIE LOIS FINE Dandridge, Tennessee
B.A. Bainonian

Blue Ridge Delegate '18; Literary Critic for Bainonian '20; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '20-'21; Assistant Librarian '20-'21.

How well her name suits her, for she is truly "fine." And what a wealth of knowledge lies hidden beneath her brown eyes. The real depth of her, her ability to serve and serve well, have made us all respect and admire her.

SAMUEL RAY FOSTER Maryville, Tennessee
B.A. Science Athenian

President Chemistry Club '19-'20; Treasurer Senior Class; Manager of Glee Club '21.

Ray is a good old sport and we all like him. He has proven himself efficient in everything he undertakes, whether it be in collecting class dues from "hard-up" seniors or managing a Glee Club. May his future hold all the happiness and good luck that he justly deserves.

RUTH McENTIRE GREENLEE Old Fort, North Carolina
B.A. Bainonian

Class Basketball '18-'19; Class Basketball Coach '19-'20; Basketball Squad '19-'20-'21; Vice-President North Carolina Club '18-'19; Editor '19-'20; Treasurer '20-'21; Secretary of Bainonian, winter term '19-'20.

There is a widespread creed abroad which asks as its only qualification that one be a sport. Now all of us are sports when we are riding our own pet hobbyhorses, but it is for an all-round sport that we're always longing. You can mark them from afar and when they come near you you can't help but love them. So if you failed to spot and love good old Ruth you've missed the best part of your life, for a sport is worth knowing.

THE CHILHOWEAN

Senior Class

TROY MAE HADDOX Knoxville, Tennessee
B.A. Theta Epsilon

Graduate in Expression '19.

Always a smile to greet you, whenever she chances to meet you—that's Troy. Her special talent is reading, and no one has ever heard her who does not want more. It will be no trouble for her to get a position in the world of art, she has only to choose. Our best wishes go with her.

WILLIAM YOUNG HAYES Woodstock, Alabama
B.A. General Athenian

Intercollegiate Debate '17-'21; Winner Athenian Oratorical Contest '17; President Glee Club '21; Signal Corps, U. S. A., 18-'19; President Athenian '21; Educational Secretary of Y. M. C. A. '17; Member Athletic Board of Control '20-'21.

"Red"—our boy with the voice of a bird. "Red" is Irish, and never was there another Irishman more full of life than he. His auburn hair, snappy eyes and keen wit make him refreshingly original. A true pal, a good sport; in fact, an all-round fellow.

JEANNETTE HIBBERT Maryville, Tennessee
B.A. Classical Bainonian

Chilhowean Staff '20; Literary Critic, Bainonian, winter term '20-'21; Class Tennis '20; Assistant Instructor in Preparatory Latin '20-'21.

What would we have done without Jeannette? Always ready with her car and her house—to do anything for the class. And the strawberries and class parties and good times she did give us! She's a girl we're all real proud of and a girl we all love. She's quite a Latin shark and has actually taught Vergil for a whole year! "John's" a good sport, a true friend, and a good, all-round girl—what more could we ask?

Senior Class

HELEN ELIZABETH HORTON Harriman, Tennessee

B.A. English Literature Theta Epsilon

Secretary Class '17-'18; Secretary Theta, winter '19; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '19; Theta Midwinter Committee '20; Chilhowean Associate Editor '20; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '20-'21; Delegate to Blue Ridge '19; President Theta Epsilon, fall '20; Editor Senior Class; Senior Play Committee.

Helen knows a host of students, and that means she has a host of friends, for charming personality, genial disposition and sweet manner win for her the love of all. She enters heart and soul into anything and many an irksome task is imposed upon her capable shoulders, but she never grumbles—that's Helen.

ISAAC LEIMEN HUSKEY Sevierville, Tennessee

B.A. Alpha Sigma

Secretary and Treasurer of Law Club '17; President of Law Club '20; Secretary of Alpha Sigma '18-'19; President Alpha Sigma '20; Treasurer of Adelpic Union Banquet '21.

Isaac is a kind of person who is always doing his part in his own quiet way, when it is done you can count on it being done right. He is friendly to all and makes one feel better after seeing him.

FRANCES WILLARD HICKEY Jonesboro, Tennessee

B.A. Bainonian

Highland Echo Staff '18-'19; Class Basketball '20; Class Editor '19-'20; Bainonian Midwinter Committee '20; Art Editor Chilhowean '20; Vice-President Bainonian, fall term '20; Vice-President French Club '21; Class Orator '21.

When Frances opens her mouth everyone listens, for words of wit and wisdom fall therefrom. She is a delight to the teachers because they feel she knows whereof she speaks. Her grades prove that, for is she not one valedictorian? Frances has a bright future before her.

THE CHILHOWEAN

Senior Class

JESSIE KATHERINE JOHNSON Athens, Tennessee
B.A. Theta Epsilon

(The Athens Department of University of Chattanooga and Tusculum College '17-'18-'19); Girls' Quartet '20-'21; College Mixed Quartet '20-'21; Girls' Tennis Team '20; Program Secretary of Theta Epsilon '20; Chairman of Theta Epsilon Midwinter Committee '21; Secretary of Class '20-'21; Second Prize in Annual Temperance Contest '21.

Jessie is a fine old girl—the kind we love. She can sing, she's a tennis champion, she has all kinds of ideas about society programs and midwinters, she writes wonderful short stories, wins temperance prizes, makes speeches—in fact, we know nothing Jessie can't do. The only thing we would change about her is the fact that she waited until her Junior year to come to Maryville. We'll forget lots of things when we leave Maryville, but we won't forget this girl, who is a real pal.

ERNEST EDMUND LOFT Twickenham, England
B.A. Alpha Sigma

Track Team '17; Secretary Alpha Sigma, fall term '18; Secretary Ministerial Association '17-'18; Vice-President Ministerial Association '20-'21; O. T. C., Fortress Monroe, Va., '18; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet '19-'21; President Student Volunteer Band '18-'20-'21; Home Mission Appointments '17-'18-'20-'21; Associate Editor of Highland Echo '18.

Everybody knows "Tommy," and everybody likes to laugh with "Tommy." He has a big heart, a good disposition, and is as earnest as his name. When he tells the heathen to "quit their meanness" we are sure they'll quit it.

MARIAN KRESPACH Princeton, New Jersey
B.A. Bainonian

Vice-President Bainonian, winter '20-'21.

Among the spinster ladies in small old-fashioned towns, there used to hover the sentiment that with the abbreviation of a girl's hair went also her effectiveness as in the case of Samson of old. Perhaps it is because time has passed and the sentiment is outworn, or perhaps it is the spectacles. At any rate, our Marian with her sweetness and ability is about to start a new sentiment in the hearts of us all.

Senior Class

FRANK SHERMAN McLAUGHLIN Mifflin, Pennsylvania
B.A. Alpha Sigma

Varsity Football '17-'19-'20; Class Football '16; Manager Football '19; Coach Freshman Football '20; Class Basketball '18-'19; Varsity Baseball '18-'19-'21; Athletic Board of Control '19-'20; Editor Ministerial Association '17; Photograph Editor Chilowean '18; Secretary of Alpha Sigma '17; U. S. Navy from June '18 to December '18.

"Big Mac" is one of our star athletes, whether it be on the gridiron or on the baseball field, he is right there on the job—we know he will make a success in whatever he undertakes, and our hearty wishes go with him.

CLAIRE McMURRAY Maryville, Tennessee
B.A. Theta Epsilon

Oberlin College '18-'19-'20; Young Women's Physical Director '20-'21.

Claire came to us from Oberlin, bringing such a sunny disposition and winning personality that we knew her as an old friend ere she had been here a week—we are glad you joined us in our last year, Clara, and may you ever be loved as you are by your classmates of old M. C.

ROLLIN MARQUIS Wickliffe, Ohio
B.A. Alpha Sigma

108th Engineers, 33rd Division, France, Army of Occupation; Glee Club '20-'21; College Quartet '21.

Did ever anyone know a person just like "Mark"? He can entertain us with jokes, philosophy—well, most anything that you would wish—and it's all so different. His smile and the blush that is ever appearing upon his countenance are pictured indelibly in our memory.

Senior Class

CHARLOTTE LOUISE MESSLER Meadow, Tennessee
B.A. Bainonian

Orchestra '20-'21; Vice-President of Chemistry Club '20-'21; Vesper Orchestra.

The great men of Rome and Athens claimed as a sign of wisdom a calm and quiet demeanor. They claimed aright, were their philosophy to be expressed in terms of unresponsive stone—but we today are finding in "our little philosopher" a throbbing heart of kindness and a personality altogether lovable, for times have changed and the stone age has passed.

LEE-ROY ELMER MIDDLETON Phoenix, Arizona
B.A. Athenian

Army '18-'19; A. E. F. '18-'19; Simmons College, Texas, '16-'17; Tennis Manager '20-'21; Adelphe Union Committee '20; Athenian Critic '21; Music Director Athenian, midwinter '20-'21; Vice-President Texas Club '15-'16; President Western Club '20-'21; Spanish Assistant '20.

"Tex" brought some of the Texas "pep" and sunshine with him when he came to Tennessee several years ago. In all the activities of class and college, Tex can be counted on to do his part. Although tennis is his specialty, he is capable and willing to do other things as well.

MARY JANE YOUNG MASON Woodstock, Alabama
B.A. Bainonian

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '18-'20; Class Basketball '20; Chilhowean Staff '20; Program Secretary Suffrage Club, winter term '20; Vice-President Suffrage Club, spring '20; Program Secretary Bainonian, fall '20; President Bainonian, winter '21; Inter-collegiate Debate '21; Cercle Francais '21; Alabama Club; Graduate in Home Economics.

If we wanted to know what to wear, we asked Mary. If we wanted to know what to eat, we asked Mary. If we wanted to know what to do or how to do it, we always asked Mary—and she always knew. Jolly, full of fun, busy, brilliant, cooking, sewing, debating—words fail when it comes to describing her. The teachers adore her, the girls love her, and the boys—well, one of them down in Alabama is quite lucky.

Senior Class

EDITH WILSON MOORE Richmond, Kentucky
B.A. Bainonian

Program Secretary Bainonian, spring '17; Treasurer Y. W. C. A. '18; Assistant in English '18; Editor Junior Class '19; Associate Editor Chilhowean '19; Treasurer Bainonian '20; Bainonian Minwinter Committee '20; President Girls' Forensic League '20-'21; Intercollegiate Debater '20-'21; Vice-President Y. W. C. A. '21; President Bainonian, fall '20-'21; Secretary to the Registrar '19-'20-'21.

Edith is quiet and unassuming, but when it comes to real work she knows how to do it and she gets results. Her quick and logical mind captures the grades. She is a good sport, nevertheless, and what it takes to spell success—she's got it.

GEORGE HILLARY PARK Culleoka, Tennessee
B.A. Science Group Alpha Sigma

U. S. Marines, A. E. F., France, '18-'19.

Now "Mikey" is one of those fellows who is in love with the world. He is the kind we need and like to be around. He is right there when it comes to pep, in the classroom and out, and the Class of '21 is sure that he will be as successful in the scientific world as he has been in M. C.

CAROLYN FANSON NELSON Assumption, Illinois
B.A. Bainonian

Assistant in Chemistry '19-'20, '20-'21.

Carrie is one of those Chemistry assistants. Formulas and problems have no terrors for her. She even takes advanced Chemistry, and thrives on it, too. What's more, she goes out for all the science there is from physics to botany. She'll make a doctor some day, and a good one; just you wait and see. In the meantime, we're glad to have had her in our class and hope when she's a celebrity she'll remember her friends at M. C.

Senior Class

HARRY MARVIN PEARSON Minnieville, Virginia
B.A. English and History Alpha Sigma

Vice-President of Alpha Sigma '18; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet '20; Advertising Manager of Lyceum '20-'21; Assistant Librarian '19-'20; Secretary of Alpha Sigma '19; Vice-President of Law Club '19; President of Law Club '20; President of Alpha Sigma '21; President of The Virginians' Club '21.

We have heard "all that glitters is not gold." Harry does not fit in that class, but everyone must confess he has a "Luster," which if not gold, is perhaps silver. He has the good wishes of all for a happy future.

MARTHA ELIZABETH ROBISON Birmingham, Alabama
B.A. English Bainonian

Program Secretary Bainonian, spring '18; Vice-President Suffrage Club, fall '19; Editor-Secretary Alabama Club '19; Chemistry Club; Treasurer Senior Y. W. C. A. '19; Program Secretary Y. W. C. A. '20; President Y. W. C. A. '21; Reporter Highland Echo '19; Associate Editor Highland Echo '20-'21; Editor-in-Chief Chilhowean '20; President of Class '20; Yell Leader Pearsons '21; Laboratory Assistant in Chemistry '18-'19-'20; Teacher of Preparatory Latin '21; Student Representative to Des Moines Conference '20; Graduate in Expression '21; Girls' Forensic League Affirmative Team '21; Cercle Francais '21.

"Martha"—quiet and having in her possession a wonderful amount of tact and unselfishness; with a willing hand for every job, a comment for every occasion and a smile for all time. Faculty and student body alike adore Martha. We are sure that her future will be as full of happiness and success as her college career has been.

SAMUEL EVERETT PETERS Friendsville, Tennessee
B.A. Mathematics Alpha Sigma

Secretary Alpha Sigma, spring '16; Corresponding Secretary Alpha Sigma, fall '20; President Alpha Sigma, winter '21; Laboratory Assistant College Physics '21; Class Orator '21.

Still water runs deep—unless "Pete" has something real and worthwhile to say, he keeps his own counsel. In addition to making an "A" scholarship, "Pete" has found time to make himself indispensable as a loyal Alpha Sigma, a capable Physics assistant, and above all, a real Maryvillian.

Senior Class

MARIAN AILEEN RUTHERFORD Etowah, Tennessee

B.A. English Literature Bainonian

Attended Athens School '17-'18; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '19; Program Secretary Bainonian, winter '21.

Aileen is the girl who writes such fine stories about school teachers. She takes all kinds of English and makes a hit with every teacher. She has that wonderful thing known as originality, and exercises it on all occasions. This makes her interesting, always. Furthermore, she gets up perfectly splendid programs for Bainonian. Oh, she's a wonder, and we're all proud of her. We'll see her some of these days in the Hall of Fame—that's certain.

IRMA MARIE SCHWAB Cuero, Texas

B.A. Bainonian

Secretary Freshman Class '19; Secretary Bainonian '19; Assistant in English '20-'21; Assistant in Psychology '21; Editor Western Club '21; Choir; President Bainonian '21.

Those who know the most always think they know the least. This is the way with Irma, she always knew she wasn't going to make but fifty per cent, and always pulled an A+, still this didn't interfere with her having a good time—and making other people happy also. Irma is one of the cutest girls in M. C., as well as one of the most popular. She is a rare composite of sweetness, smartness and cuteness. She will make a dandy little school teacher—but will she?

ANNA M. SHARP Bearden, Tennessee

B.A.

Graduate Home Economics '19; Graduate Expression '21.

Anne has a willing hand for every job. She is quite skilled in the culinary art, and some man will be quite lucky. Anne is also talented in Expression—her place in the class would be a hard one to fill.

THE CHILHOWEAN

Senior Class

MILDRED STRIPLIN Huntsville, Alabama
B.A. Theta Epsilon

Vice-President of Theta Epsilon, fall '19; Secretary of Theta Epsilon, winter '20;
President of Theta Epsilon, winter '21; Midwinter Committee '21.

"Strip" is good natured and jolly, and that's what everybody likes—always ready to laugh at a joke and to pass one on. She is capable and willing and helps to pull many a hard job through. Though she's sometimes called "Punk," the name does not fit the character.

OSCAR STANTON Marshall, North Carolina
B.A. Alpha Sigma

Assistant in Chemistry '18-'20; Intercollegiate Debater '18-'20; Captain Team '21;
President Law Club, fall '19; Vice-President Alpha Sigma, fall '19; President
Forensic League '20-'21; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet '20; Associate Editor Chilhowean '20;
Associate Editor Highland Echo '20; Editor Chemistry Club '19-'20; President
Alpha Sigma, fall '20.

"Red" will make a lawyer who will win many a case, just as he has won many a debate on the old Hill. He is full of "pep" and is a natural-born leader—you can't keep him down. We expect to hear from "Red" in the future.

MARGUERITE SULLINGER Maryville, Tennessee
B.A. Bainonian

Secretary Class '19-'20; Editor Ukulele Club '19; Graduate in Piano '19-'20-'21;
Chilhowean Staff '20; Highland Echo Staff '19-'20-'21; French Circle '20-'21.

"Polly"—charming, ingenious and winsome. Her sweet smile has brightened the lives of all who have known her, and won for her a place in the heart of the student body, while her magnetic personality and real depth have held her there.

Senior Class

LOLA AGNES WARE Birmingham, Alabama
B.A. Bainonian

Graduate of Home Economics '19; Teacher Preparatory Home Economics '19-'21;
Assistant in Biology '20.

"Miss Ware" we call her because she is a student teacher. Home Ec is her fortress, and her pupils adore her. Her amiable disposition and pleasing manner win for her the admiration and friendship of all, but those who know her best love her best.

FLOYD RODGERS WATT Loudon, Tennessee
B.A. Athenian

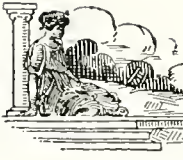

Vice-President Athenian, winter '18; Secretary and Treasurer Ministerial Association '18-'19; President Ministerial Association '19-'20; Treasurer Athenian '19-'20; Y. M. C. A. Delegate to Blue Ridge Conference in summer of '20.

Of a quiet and unassuming nature, yet those who know him well find him to be a good friend, and we know him to be a loyal and dependable classmate. We are sure of his success in the ministry.

GRACE CAROLINE SYNDENSTRICKER Chinkiang, China
B.A. Bainonian

Treasurer Y. M. C. A. '20; Treasurer Sophomore Class '20; Secretary-Treasurer Student Volunteer Band '21; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '21.

Grace is one of the bright ones who has made college in three years. We wish that we could have had her longer, for she is an asset to any class. She is always ready to serve her best—that's no mean amount. The best wishes of us all go with her as she goes back to China to do a valuable work.

THE CHILHOWEAN

Recent Fiction

In The Lure of Snap, by Virginia Nicely and Blanche Lowry, much is said concerning the social evils of this sport which has fascinated so many youths. With precision have the authors pointed out the dangerous moments, unavoidable in this acrobatic competition.

Labor Problems, by Frank Minarik. This economic treatise, written in a breezy style, seems to be more theoretical than practical. It would help the sincerity of the tone of this work if the author would engage in some form of actual labor for at least a short time.

The Growing Need of Matrons, written by Ruth Quinn and Luster Brooks, and published by Effie Erickson, is a clarion call for the altruistic young ladies of this nation to meet the appeal for more matrons.

Flights of Fancy, a book of poems, has been compiled by Melvin Lawson. In this wonderful collection, an Ode to Browning, by Percy Buchanan, and Alone With the Forest, by Dorothy Stivers, rank with the world's greatest lyrics.

The Architecture of the Home, a magazine edited by Lee Herndon, contains this month two excellent articles, How to Brighten Up the Hall, by Nell Baker, and A Home for Two, by William Magill.

The Art of Conversation is the latest book by Edward Caldwell. This work of inestimable worth contains chapters by various people of interlocutory fame. Sufficeth to say that Laura Stevens, Guy Myers and Ruth Clayton have all contributed.

Reba Seaton, Jane Waller and Dorothy Heron, well-known collaborators, have recently published a psychological phenomenon, Brain and the Bluff.

Gastronomic Marathons is a recent work of that master of the English prose, Charles Sharp. He has collected daily, and in a striking style, brilliantly worded it into the season's sensation.

Loafing in the Library. Helen Deal, Jennie Lequire and Ivorra McAllister have collaborated in writing this romance. They have woven about this interesting feature of college life a wonderful plot.

Les Chef-d'Oeuvres Francais, by Owen Henderson. This detailed discussion of the great works of the French masters with its numerous interspersings of French phrases and quotations could only have been written by a linguist skilled in the romance languages.

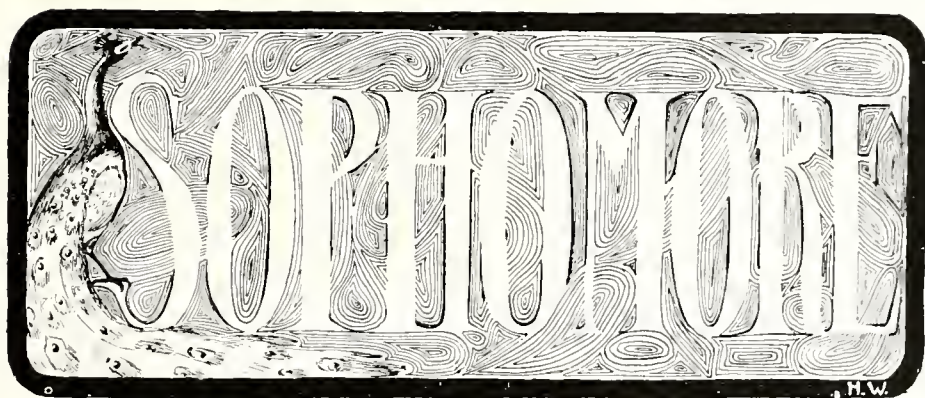

A Smile Will Do It. Anonymous. This essay contains many illustrations of the proper smile, posed by Nannette Walker, George Howell and Bernice West. The unknown author who has written under the non de plume, Judy, has shown the proportionate length and breadth of a smile, (a) cute angle of the eyebrows, the proper position of the dimple, the critical moment and correct length of a smile.

Class Poem

Freshmen, life's ways part before us,
Right or wrong we now must choose,
Each road leads a throng of pilgrims,
Some gain heights, while others lose;
Heights of fame loom high above us,
Mad'ning trials rise between us
As we go toward yonder summit
'Neath a sky that is serene.

Forced to make the choice before us,
Reach for heights, or take mere ease,
Each has chosen for his journey
Steep ascents, through blast or breeze;
Happy hours we find in climbing
Mast'ring tasks from day to day,
And each peak we pass in triumph
Ne'er again shall block our way!

B. M. R.

Freshmen!

You have now come to the cross-roads, so Stop! Look! Listen! We, the members of the Class of '24, are endeavoring to cultivate lives that will reveal only the highest, noblest and best ideals.

Look for us on the basketball court, football field, in Y. M. and Y. W. work, literary societies, debating teams and, in fact, all activities which make up so great a part of our school life. For we are there with our ideals, and we are truly striving to live up to our motto, "The tree is known by its fruit."

We will always stand for M. C. with her high ideals and altruistic spirit, knowing she has much in store for us during the next few years.

Football, 1921

At the opening of college each fall the grunt of the pigskin is a pleasant and a familiar sound. At the beginning of this year, an unusually large number of men came out in response to Coach Feeman's call for practice. Many of these were new men. However, there were enough of the preceding eleven to form a nucleus around which to build a new team. The old letter men were Ford, captain; Sullivan, manager; Davidson, a fast backfield man; and Frank McLaughlin, the star center of last year's team.

Members of last year's scrub team reporting were Beck, fullback; Wyncoop, a lineman; John and Jimmie Hendrick, ends; Hicks and C. McLaughlin, linemen. Among the most promising new men were Sullinger, McMurray, King, Parrot and Drake.

Under the coaching of "Doc" Feeman, assisted by Captain Ford, the men were put through a hard course of training. As there were enough men out for three teams, a great deal of scrimmaging was resorted to, with the result that a smooth-working, fast team was whipped into shape.

As had been the custom for several years, U. T. was the first opponent. In this game Maryville hardly hoped to win with her lighter and less experienced men, but her boys held their own, as they always do, and played gamely to the last.

The next game was with Kentucky State at Lexington. Maryville lost that game to more experienced men also.

The third game was scheduled with Mississippi A. & M. at Starks-ville, but this game was called off.

The fourth game was at home, when Maryville over-ran the boys of Roanoke College to the tune of 14-0. Then followed another game at home, in which the boys of Middle Tennessee State Normal defeated our team.

Our boys invaded the camp of the Georgetown warriors and lost a game to them.

The last game was won from our friendly rival, Tusculum College, on Turkey Day. This was the hottest contest of the season, as both colleges have evenly matched teams almost every year.

Our season was not so successful as it might have been, but with our new athletic fee the football men will have all they need in the way of equipment and schedule.

The line-up for this year was as follows: Frank McLaughlin, center; Drake and C. McLaughlin, guards; Hicks and Sullivan, tackles; Hendrick and Hendrick, ends; Beck and Sullinger, fullbacks; Davidson, Cotton and McMurray, halfbacks; and Ford, quarterback.

GIRLS

URRAH for the lassies who battle for the honors of a basketball letter! Sometimes we think that the girls do not get as much recognition in college athletics as they ought to have. We know this has been the case this year, because only four basketball games were arranged for them. All of these were won. Of course we missed those two star guards of last year, also that tireless center, yet we had three mighty good young ladies in their shoes.

From the few appearances of the team we saw that the material was excellent. With Blanche Bailey and Elsie Dawson at forward the combination was unbeatable. This was their last year on the team. Sydney Sherrod was the whole court player; Margaret McKinley, Maud Bailey, and Lucile Smith were the featuring guards.

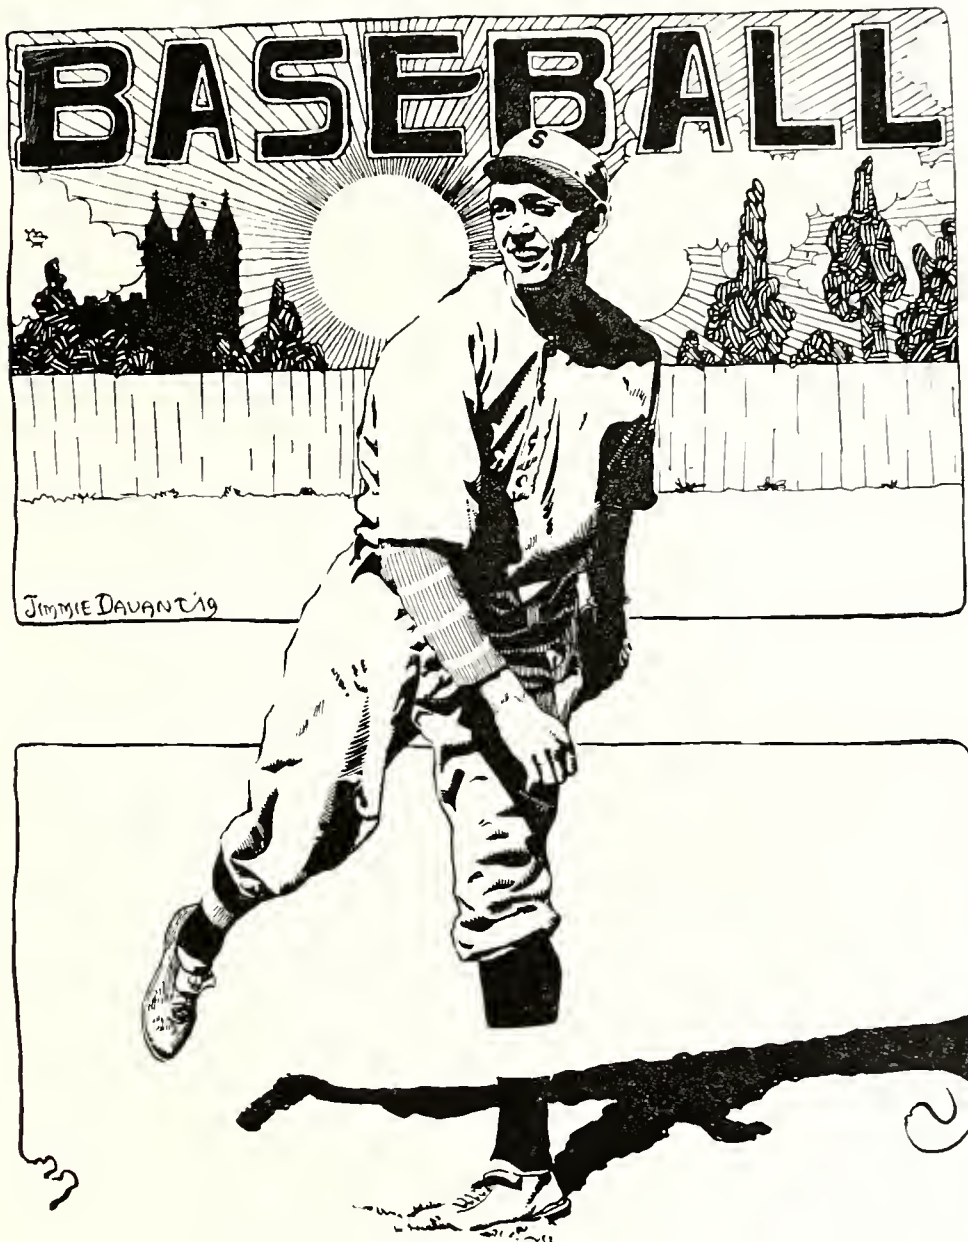

BOYS

By far the fastest games connected with college life are the lively contests of basketball.

At the opening of the season of '21 the prospects for a winning team were uncertain. Cotton and Hendrick were the only letter men on the hill. But in answer to Coach Feeman's call to practice several new men of ability were lined up. The best of these were McMurray, Delozier, McGinley, Janoviczky and C. McLaughlin.

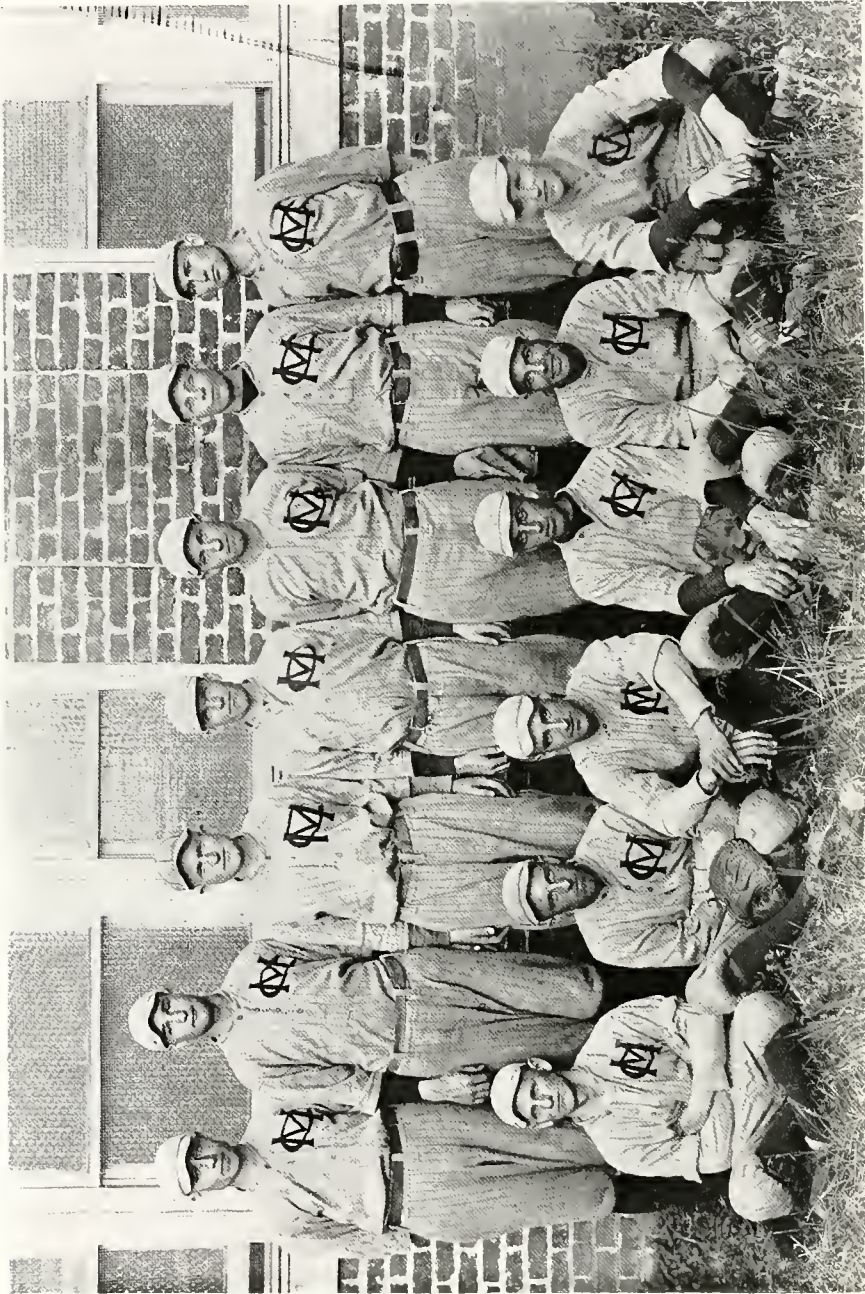

Owing to an incomplete schedule, the students did not get to see much of the splendid ability of these men, but we know it was there, judging from the few games witnessed. And we are sure that next year a splendid schedule will be arranged.

The following men were awarded the "M" for their services rendered to the college: Hendrick, C. McLaughlin, McGinley, Delozier, McMurray, Janoviczky and Cotton.

Baseball, 1920

HE national sport is always a favorite in Maryville College. Although we are always glad when the football and basketball seasons are in full sway, yet there is something in the air of the springtime that makes us welcome the crack of the horse-hide pill against the bat.

Maryville College always supports winning baseball teams, because she never has any other kind. The team of 1920 proved to be such a team by winning fourteen, yea, fifteen out of twenty-three games played. The game in question was won, but forfeited to Tusculum.

Our team started the season with a 6-1 victory over the Walland Bears, and closed it with a 2-1 victory over the famous Alcoa nine.

Two extensive trips in addition to several shorter ones were taken. The first long one was to Atlanta, where the boys locked horns with the University of Oglethorpe. Two games were lost on this trip. The other big trip was to Center and Georgetown colleges in Kentucky. Only one game was played on this trip. The other games were rained out.

The shorter trips were to Lincoln Memorial University, Carson-Newman College, Tusculum College and to the University of Tennessee.

The following men were awarded a baseball "M": Ruble, captain; Cotton, manager; Davidson, Williams, Smith, Cintra, Lowry, Partee, Wagner, Rowan, McCall and McCullough.

Young Women's Christian Association

HE Y. W. C. A. this year has attempted to uphold the valued standards of the organization. It has endeavored to continue the activities of past years in as far as it seemed wise. The Y. W. C. A. reception for new girls at the beginning of the year was a great success, and due largely to it the organization has had a ninety per cent membership. Other activities launched by the Y. W. C. A. in the past and repeated this year, such as the breakfast in the woods, Y. W. C. A. store, and May Day program, have made the association popular with the girls. The books, magazines and papers in the Y. W. library have been catalogued and distributed in the girls' halls so systematically that they have been used as never before. The Year Book, a guide to Maryville, has gone to press and will be distributed to the new students next year by the Associations. The Sunday afternoon services have been well attended and the talks and addresses have been excellent. In the fall, the mission study classes were held and much interest was taken by the various groups. In the spring "Practical Christianity," a series of talks by Miss Clemmie Henry, was unusually good. The Maryville Association has always been well represented at the various conferences, and this year the Y. W. C. A. sent a large number of delegates to the conference of cabinet members at Knoxville in April and to the Blue Ridge Conference in June. In other ways than these, the organization has striven to maintain the enviable reputation the Y. W. C. A. has always held on the hill.

The Y. W. C. A., besides carrying out the programs of past years, has made several noteworthy steps forward. The Big Sister Movement, begun in the fall, has proved to be one of the most successful features of the Association. Since it has been so beneficial, it will be carefully carried out each year. The week-end camping party at Montvale Springs under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. was enjoyed by over a hundred girls. It is hoped that this most popular recreational activity of the organization will be continued. At Easter the first Y. W. C. A. banquet was held. Both the dinner and the toasts were exceptionally good. The girls looked forward to this banquet becoming one of the annual features of the Y. W. C. A. program. This year, for the first time, the Y. W. joined with the Y. M. in presenting the Lyceum course, and in the future this plan will be continued. Worth-while numbers have been booked for next year. The Y. W. organizations look forward eagerly to the occupying of their rooms, not yet finished, in Thaw Hall. The college pastor has given $15 toward a fund for furnishing and decorating the two halls. The rooms have been greatly needed and will be much appreciated by all the girls.

This spring the Y. W. C. A. looks back over the past year with pleasure and anticipates still greater achievements for the future.

The Young Men's Christian Association

HIS year has found the Y. M. C. A. of Maryville College further along the way toward its goal of complete and efficient service to the student body, and to the others whom it may reach. Guided by conscientious officers and supported by faithful committee work, it has realized several achievements worthy of remembrance.

THE RECEPTION AND THE BANQUET

A few days after the students arrived, the "Y" followed its yearly custom of entertaining all the boys with an evening reception around a big bonfire in the college wood. The songs, the speeches, and the refreshments which were provided for the occasion, together with the opportunity for getting acquainted which it afforded, made the evening a very enjoyable one. In November at the Y. M. C. A. banquet, executives and members of the association again met and discussed plans for the work of the year.

THE HI-Y CONFERENCE AND THE BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The association this year was host to two gatherings of high school boys. The first was the East Tennessee Hi-Y Conference, held during the holidays. Entertainment was furnished by the boys in the dormitory, and the seventy boys were comfortably housed during the three days. Under the direction of capable and distinguished leaders, they discussed their problems and made plans for future work. In February the Recreational Committee of the association held a basketball tournament on the hill, in which teams from eight high schools contested for the laurels of championship. Knoxville High emerged champion, with LaFollette in second place. The committee awarded suitable trophies to the two teams and to the individuals on the winning team.

THE SUNDAY AFTERNOON MEETINGS AND SPECIAL CLASSES

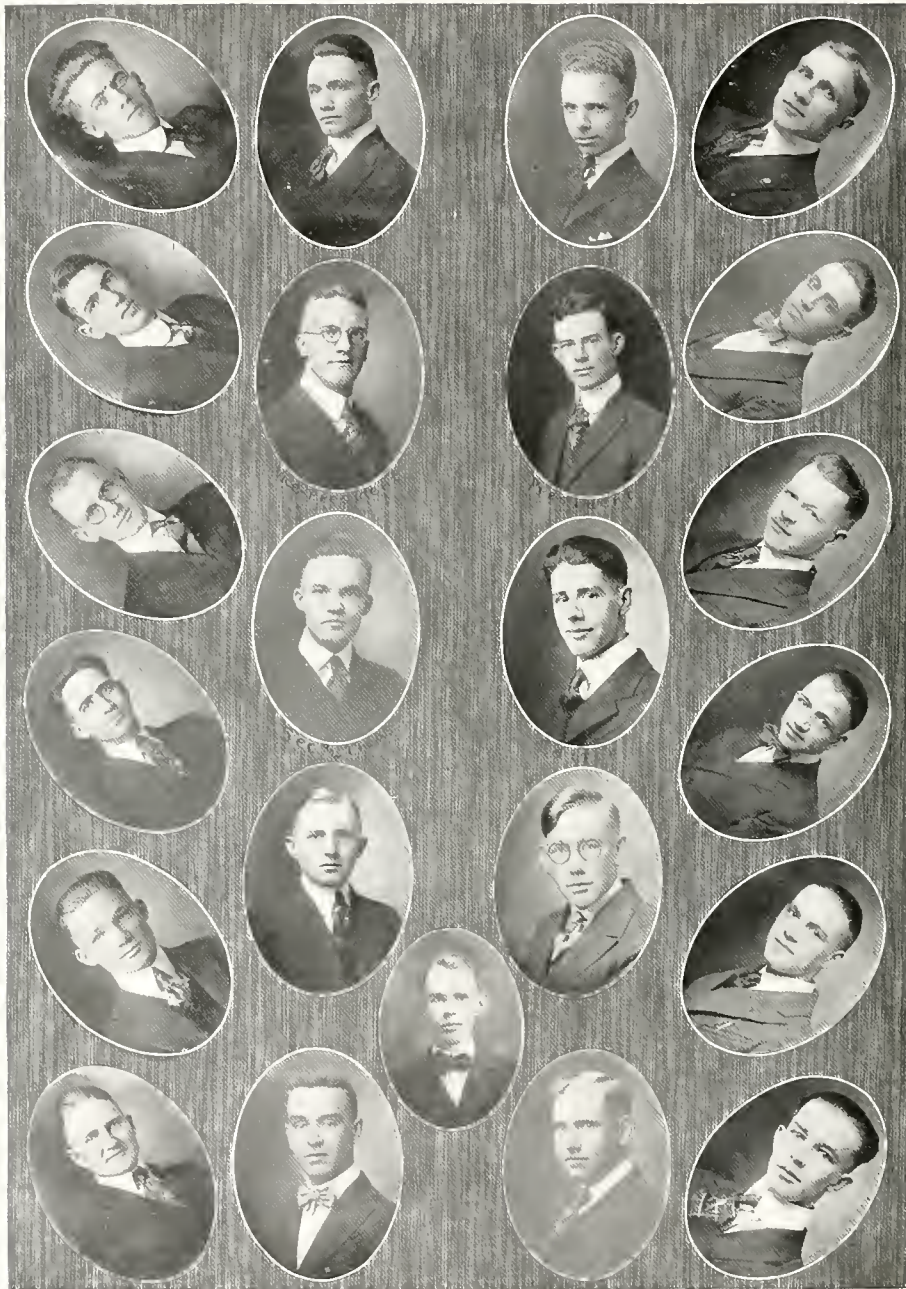

The regular Sunday afternoon meetings of this year have exerted a wide influence. Besides professors and students of the college, such men as Dr. Morgan, president of the University of Tennessee; Dr. Louis Chafer, a noted Bible scholar; Dr. W. D. Weatherford, president of the Southern College of Y. M. C. A., have been numbered among the speakers at these meetings. Of the special classes, some deserve special mention. Dr. Stevenson conducted a six weeks' course following the meetings on the "Fundamentals of Christian Faith," and also a weekly class for those doing social service work in Sunday schools. Dr. McMurray led a group of men during the spring on the interracial problems. Bible and mission study classes were likewise carried on throughout the year.

OTHER ACTIVITIES OF THE ASSOCIATION

These are too numerous to catalogue separately, including as they do benefits to the social, mental, physical and spiritual life. Dr. W. S. Hall presented the appeal of social purity. Presentations of the phases of a well-rounded man were made from time to time. Delegates attended the state convention. Fifteen men represented Maryville at the Blue Ridge Conference, taking second place in basketball, and standing creditably in baseball, and tennis. Other features worth mentioning are the deputation work, the "Y" store, and the handbook. A new constitution replaced the old and wornout document. The association operates on the basis that "The greatest shall be the servant of all," and it challenges the best manhood on the campus, and enlists them in actual accomplishment.

ALPHA SIGMA LITERARY SOCIETY

Alpha Sigma

ALMOST two score years ago a group of twelve young men, realizing the need for literary training, organized the Alpha Sigma Literary Society. It was the lofty aim of these founders to establish an organization for the development of forensic and social activities; and throughout its history of thirty-nine years the Alpha Sigma Literary Society has been carrying out this ideal of literary achievement. The Alpha Sigma spirit—good fellowship and unselfishness—has won for the society the highest respect, and has been the chief factor in the accomplishment of the founders' purposes.

This spirit has been felt in every phase of college life. Our men have stood for clean competition in all college activities. Indeed, our members are ambitious, but their ambition is guided by unselfishness; they are social, but the social aims of the society are limited by the realization of the importance of high literary work. The society has kept a close guard upon its traditions. In the admittance of new members, quality and not quantity has been the guiding principle.

The closing year has been one in which the direct application of the Alpha Sigma spirit has been the policy of the Society's executives; and the results have been noteworthy. A large number of active men from the new students was admitted to membership, and already their talent has drawn attention. In the annual Midwinter its members are given an opportunity to show literary talent, and this year the Alpha Sigma won distinction in this special feature. The play, "Strongheart," was an overwhelming success, and won high commendation from the entire student body. In other activities, the society's influence has been felt. We have always had our share of representatives in debates, oratorical contests, and athletics; in fact, our men have been active in all noteworthy movements on the hill.

The prediction for the Society could be nothing but success. A policy of co-operation has always been prevalent in Alpha Sigma; and especially have we endeavored to co-operate with our sister society, Theta Epsilon; their assistance to the Alpha Sigma has been invaluable; and we take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation. The Society has ideals that are harmonious with those of the College, and it has always been the chief aim to be loyal to old Alma Mater. Alpha Sigma's history is rich with achievements, and its ideals have been carefully guarded and perpetuated. Greater achievements and higher attainments are the ambitions of its present membership.

BAINONIAN GROUP

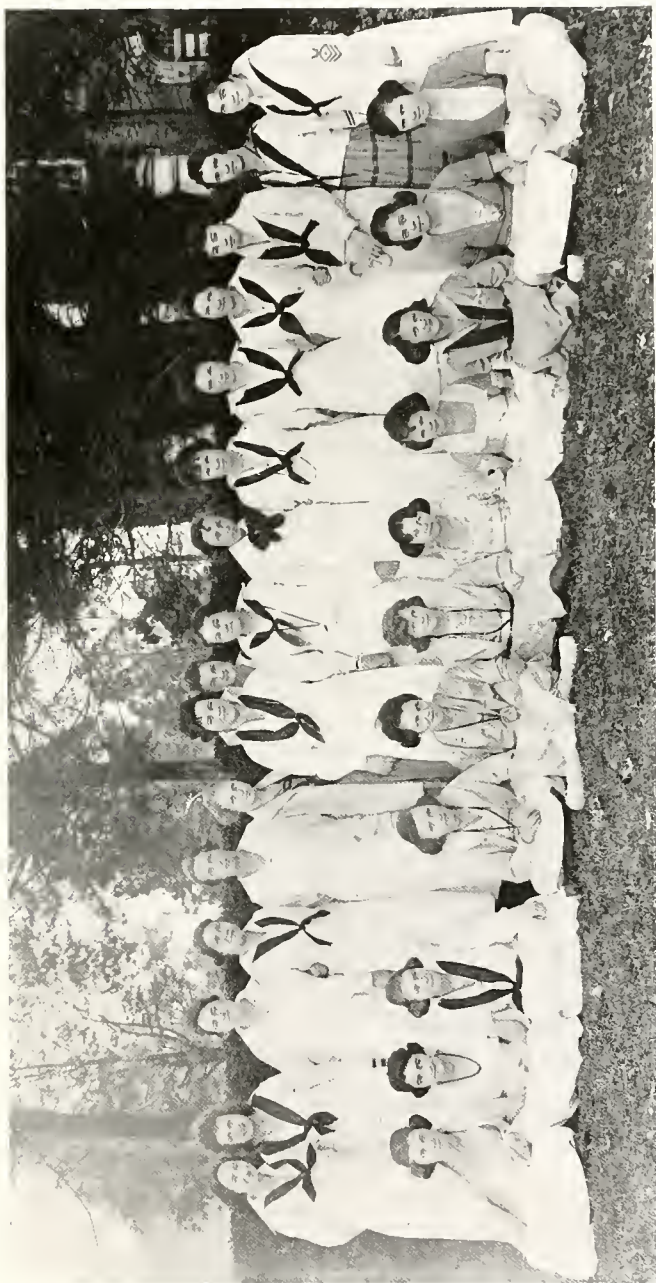

BAINONIAN GROUP

Theta Epsilon

Theta Epsilon Literary Society is now twenty-seven years old and each year of its existence it has more than doubled its enrollment over that of the preceding year. It has drawn within its folds much of the talent which comes to Maryville yearly, and within its close embrace it has taught them the principles for which not only the society stands, but it has breathed into them the spirit of Maryville. Its aim since that early time has been to secure a happy and judicious blending of instruction and entertainment, and it has, in a fair measure, met with success in accomplishing this aim.

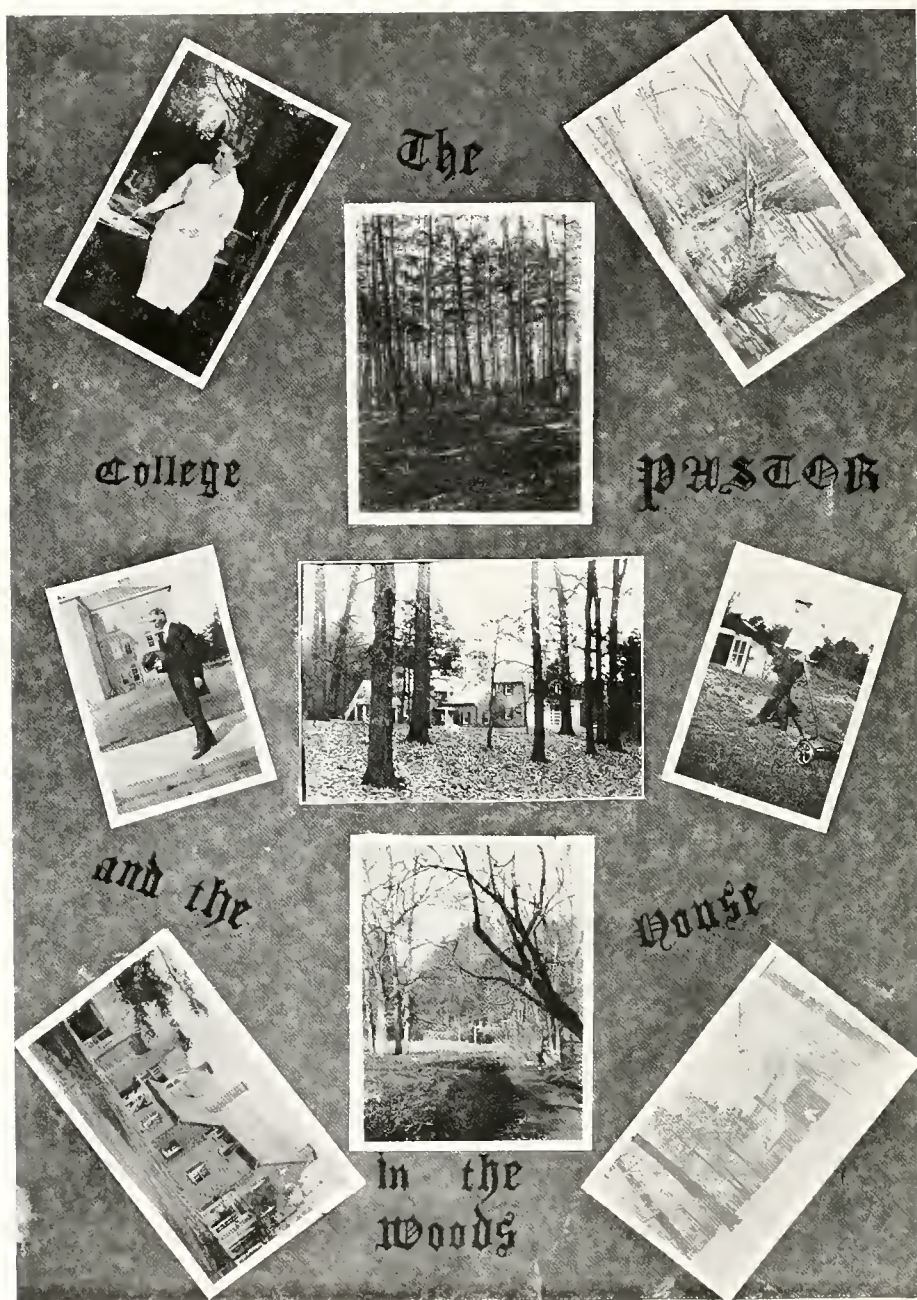

This year shows not only a great increase in numbers, but a great increase in the interest of the society. Its programs have been excellent, and for that reason its weekly meetings have been well attended. The annual midwinter gave a hint of some of the literary ability of Theta, for never before has a midwinter been proclaimed a greater success than was "The House of Rimmon," presented February, 1921.

Here's to Theta, a long and happy life, and may she meet always with a welcome in the hearts of the yearly newcomers and they in return will be welcomed and loved.

The Girls' Forensic League is as yet very young, this being the second year of its existence. However, its ranks are increasing, and judging by the interest shown, there will be next year a list of contestants for the preliminary equaling that of the boys.

A dual debate was arranged with Tusculum. The subject for this debate was, "All Japanese except diplomatic and trade representatives, students in colleges and universities and tourists should be denied admittance to the territory of the United States." The affirmative team, which debated at Tusculum, was composed of Edith Moore (captain), Martha Robison, Ruth McCall and Alice Renick (alternate). The negative team, composed of Mary Macon (captain), Bernice Kimble, Ethel DeHaven and Reva Rankin (alternate), met the Tusculum girls on the home floor.

The Forensic League was organized to stimulate interest in debate and to encourage the development of debating talent and skill. How well its aims were realized this year was shown by the quality of the debate teams produced.

The Intercollegiate Forensic League, which was effected last year, has been limited to colleges and universities of Tennessee. Two dual debates were scheduled, one with Carson-Newman College, and one with Tusculum College. Fourteen men were chosen as Maryville's representatives from at least fifty contestants in the preliminary.

The question for the debate with Carson-Newman was, "The United States and Great Britain should form a formal defensive alliance." The affirmative team, which represented Maryville at Carson-Newman, was composed of Young Hayes (captain), Ralph A. Armstrong and Floyd Corry (alternate). The negative team, which upheld our banner at home, was composed of Oscar Stanton (captain), Verton Queener and Clyde Wilson (alternate).

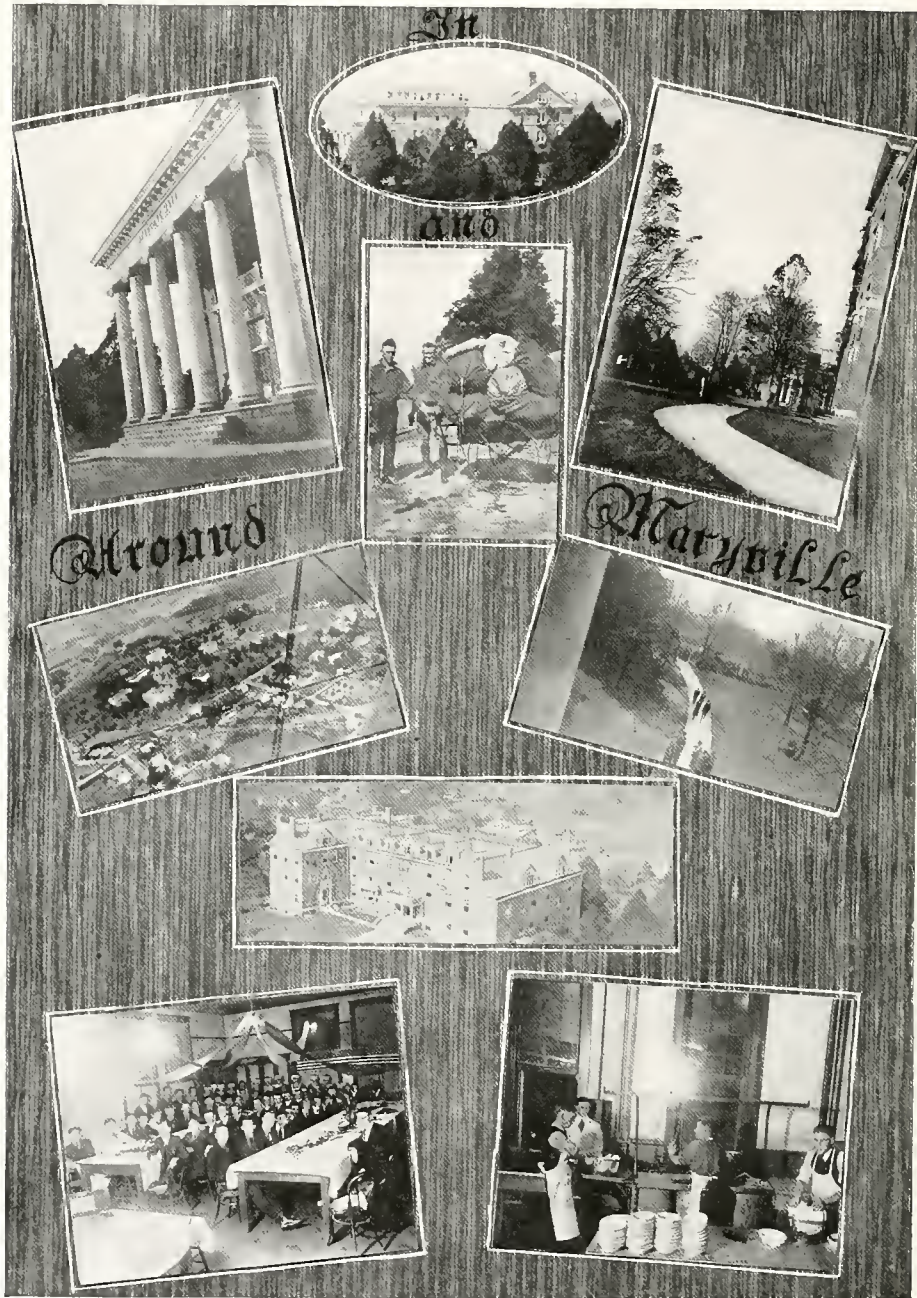

The question for the Tusculum debate was, "The form of government of the United States should be so modified as to provide for a system of responsible executive government." The affirmative team, which carried the battle to Tusculum, consisted of Thomas B. Vance (captain), David King and D. L. Beard. The negative team, debating at home, consisted of Arthur Nace (captain), Roy S. Buffat and Bennett Montgomery. Herrick Arnold and Charles N. Sharp, who were originally chosen captains, were forced out of the fray by illness. The other members of the teams met this loss heroically and worked unceasingly.

Preparatory Forensic League

The preparatory debaters have three contests, the boys one with Greeneville High, the girls one with Athens, and then in the Knoxville High debate the girls debate the negative at Maryville and the boys the affirmative at Knoxville. A large interest is manifested by the younger set in forensics, and they furnish excellent material for the college teams.

THE CHILHOWEAN

Lest We Forget

That Frank Minarik has a new yell.
That Tom Vance has his suits made to order.
That "Pinky" Burson is president of the First Preps.
That Ray Foster is manager of the Glee Club.
That Maryville played Boston Red Sox and New York Giants.
That it costs money to ride to Alcoa.
That Third Floor Pearsons girls got three demerits.
That it is a luxury for girls to walk on the cinder path.
That Ann Alred is not yet willing to give up her "kitty."
That the Y. W. Store and Spraker & Atkins are indebted to Geraldine Odell.
That students are still "Hyden" from history.
That Elihu found a moonshining still in the library.
That Prof. Orr was "raised" in Arkansas.
That Miss Molly's heart is still burning.
That the Colgate Company gave the students a belated Christmas present.
That Red Hayes is still looking for a wife.

That psychology is still an interesting course.
That "Old Lady" is sticky.
That Elsie and Jarvis are still fussing.
That John Hendrick sprained his ankle while indulging in a strenuous game of leap-frog.
That the Y. W. girls went to Montvale.
That "Brick" Armstrong is a chemistry assistant(?)
That Lamar Wilson is president of the Senior Class.
That we had two whole holidays after the February meetings.
That the Memorial girls had a mock wedding.
That Keen pays his board by mail.
That there was a spring course in millinery.
That Cecil got slapped at the breakfast table.
That Shakespeare was born the same day as Nannette.
That Buffat was a frequent visitor at the Chilhowean office.
That Henderson gets mail from the Hayes family.
That M. C. students understand French.
That April fool jokes are sometimes expensive.
